

CIRCULATION
Of The Daily Courier
Last Week Averaged
5,574.

Daily Courier

CITY EDITION.

ADVERTISING
In The Daily Courier
Invariably Brings
THE RESULTS

VOL. 5, NO. 206. EIGHT PAGES.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 12, 1907.

PRICE, ONE CENT.

SLIGO INJUNCTION HEARING HELD AT UNIONTOWN TODAY.

Secretary Joseph McConnell Testified That Repeated Laying Off of Men Became Unbearable.

CLAIMS PLANT IS A GOOD ONE.

Man Who Sought Work for Himself, Boy and Brother Says He Was Threatened by Union Men—Attorney W. J. Brennan for the Men.

UNIONTOWN, July 12.—The hearing in the injunction proceedings of the Sligo Iron & Steel Company vs. the Amalgamated Association of Iron Steel and Tinplate Association, Mount Creek Lodge, other labor organizations and 40 individuals began this morning before Judges Repert and Embel. Attorneys Sterling, Hickey, Dumbauld & Brown appeared for the iron company and Attorney John P. Brennan of Pittsburg, D.M. Herzog and A. E. Jones for the Amalgamated men.

Secretary Joseph McConnell was the first to testify. He said the company had signed the union scale but they did not agree to employ union men. The company employed between 300 and 400 hundred men. They were all supposed to be skilled workmen. It is denied that the men was old-fashioned and for that reason men had trouble in operating it. He said that it having only been recently rebuilt was proof of this. He testified that there were many days when between 40 and 50 men, who had been employed, failed to go to work. Attorney Brennan carried out in his argument that it was not sufficient reason to make the injunction permanent against the men for merely trying to influence others not to go to work in the mill. Mr. McConnell continued his testimony by stating that conditions got so bad about the mill that it was necessary to get a detail of the State Constabulary to preserve order.

David J. Williams of West Middlesex, Pa., testified that he went to the Connellsville mill to get work for himself, his boy and brother. While on his way there he was met by a crowd of between 20 and 40 men, who assailed him. Asked what he was going to do by this crowd, he said that he was going to work in the mill. He heard some one in the crowd say that he would never get out of town alive. The crowd followed him and hurled threats at him. Some pulled his coat tails and suggested that they wipe up the ground with him in order to make an example. He finally got there and when he went to work found that he was located alongside of a negro and was refused to continue at work leaving at once.

John Durkin said he went to Connellsville to work May 16. He could not identify anyone in the court room that had ever offered him money to leave. Joe Mullin was also called and asked if anyone had offered him money to leave. He said they had, but he was unable to identify any person present in the room as the party. This concluded the testimony for the morning session. It is probable that a large amount will be offered at the afternoon session.

There are fully 60 Connellsville people present at the hearing and great interest is being taken in it by all members of labor organizations.

BOWIE TRIAL.

Father of Dead Man Accuses State's Attorney of Not Making Proper Effort.

Special to Sunday Courier.
LAPAP, July 12.—Such bitterness has arisen between Hugh Posey, father of Hubert Posey, for whose death Mrs. Mary E. Bowie and her son Henry are on trial, and State's Attorney Willmar, that trouble is possible before the case goes to the jury. Posey declares the prosecution has not made the proper effort. He charges that several of the jurors said before the trial that Mrs. Bowie and her son did right when they killed the bewayer of Priscilla Bowie; that they would have done it themselves under similar circumstances.

The only reply of the State's Attorney is, "I am doing what I think best for the country." Posey was informed that he would have to be satisfied with that. Posey was far from satisfied and there are ominous murmurings in plenty. Congressmen Mihell is now delivering his argument for the defense in his most forcible manner.

Fair Weather.
Fair tonight and Saturday, warmer Saturday, is the noon weather bulletin.

WHITE DAMP KILLS SEVEN.

Miners Sent Down to Measure Water Never Come Back.

HAZELTON, Pa., July 12.—(Special)—Seven Italian mine workers were probably killed by white damp in an abandoned slope of the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal Company at Honey Brook yesterday. John Latchinda was gotten out alive, and this gives a slight hope that some of the others may be still living.

COREA'S COMPLAINT.

Royal Prince Presents Case Before Hague Peace Conference and Will Come to America.

Publischer's Press Telegram.

THE HAGUE, July 12.—Highwaymen, banditries and murderers are the mildest terms Prince Jwing Oul Yi of Corea has for the Japanese. He is voicing his appeals to the Hague Peace Conference for the Powers aid in having the country relieved from the Mikado's oppression. Japan is trying to stend Corea as barefacedly as ever a highwayman robbed a stage coach," he declared today, discussing his mission from the Corian people.

"Many of our public men have committed suicide rather than submit to the barbarities of the Japanese government. Our Emperor is the Mikado's prisoner. I accuse Japan of unfeared fury in its treatment of Corea."

The Prince stated that W. B. Hurler, an American, who was the Corean Emperor's best and most trusted advisor, has left The Hague for the United States, where he will try Core's case before President Roosevelt. "The world will protest in horror when it knows the true conditions," says the Prince.

Late today Prince Yi announced that the Corian delegation has changed its plans. The entire party will sail for America July 17 to explain Japan's oppression of Coreans to the American people.

A SIDEWIPE.

Train No. 1 Was Delayed This Morning by An Accident Near Uniontown.

Train No. 1, on the F. M. & P. branch, due to arrive here at 7:50 A. M., met with an accident on a siding near Uniontown this morning, which delayed it more than an hour.

There was a long string of Rock Island stock cars, which are now being used for carrying coke, standing on the tracks. In order to get around these the passenger train was to take the siding and in running down into it, owing to slippery rails the brakes refused to work. The passenger side-wiped another from the track and plowing into the tail.

The engine was somewhat damaged, but proceeded with the train after the accident. No one was injured, although some of the passengers got a shaking up. Harry Hughes was at the throttle and Phillip Blair was the conductor.

SURPRISE EUCHE.

Given by Mrs. W. H. Cochran for Husband's 49th Birthday.

DAWSON, July 12.—(Special)—Mrs. W. H. Cochran gave a pretty surprise euche last night at her pretty home on Railroad street, Dawson. It was in honor of Mr. Cochran's 49th birthday. Sixty of his gentleman friends were present to help celebrate the occasion. The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers of every description. Lunch was served at 11:30.

The hours were from 9:30 until 1 A. M., while there was spent in progressive euche. A. J. Cochran and Eddie Hornbeck were the first for first prize, which was later played off. A. J. Cochran whistling with 120 points, John Moore won the consolation prize. Music was furnished by Kitterle's orchestra of Connellsville.

Seeks to Recover Horse.
P. Blaize of Connellsville has brought an action in relation against F. N. Sherrick for the recovery of a sorrel horse, which he alleges is his property and which Sherrick refuses to turn over to him.

Spoiled Fishing.
The rain yesterday spoiled good bass fishing.

HURRICANE IN PERRY AND FRANKLIN.

Barns Blown to the Four Winds, Roads Are Impassable From Fallen Trees and Fences Scattered Over Miles of Territory.

Special to The Courier.

STAR JUNCTION, July 12.—A storm bordering on a hurricane swept over a small strip of Perry and Franklin townships last evening about 5 o'clock and great damage was done. Barns were unroofed, fields of grain and crops of all kinds were completely destroyed and the roads are impassable today from the many trees that were uprooted and thrown over them. About 5 o'clock the people noticed for more than an hour a big black cloud that hung threateningly over the territory. It was followed by thunder and then a terrific electric storm. Peaces were blown away and many of the fields have not a tan about them.

The barn of Norman Piersol was unroofed and blown from its foundation. It is standing upright imbedded in the ground today. The door was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange occurrence at this barn was that a board that was lying near was carried a distance of 600 yards and then shot into the earth. It is standing upright imbedded in the ground today. The door was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands. Dr. L. Russell was on his way to the Murphy home and narrowly escaped being killed by falling timbers. Another barn owned by Mr. Murphy in Franklin township was also completely ruined.

The roof of J. A. Sticker's barn was blown off and carried a distance of 200 yards. A strange coincidence is that while much of the timber was blown five hundred yards a corner of it stood 50 yards away from it on posts still stands

SOMERSET IS BEATEN.

Game of Five Innings Played Yesterday Afternoon in Mud.

HOCKEY RINGER PITCHED NICELY

But One Hit Was Made Off Him and None Off Red Laing—Double Headers Are Scheduled for This Afternoon and Tomorrow.

Somerset made its debut in the West Penn League yesterday afternoon at the park under rather unfavorable circumstances. But four and a half innings were played, the game going to Connellsville by a score of 1 to 0. Only one hit was made in the game, a single by Baker, the now California State Normal catcher who was given a trial, hurling Red Laing's shots. With one out Umpire Hayes Miller called time. The field was a perfect sea the balance of the afternoon, but after about 20 minutes' wait, the game was resumed and Somerset was retired in order. In Connellsville's half of the third and fourth innings the batters went out as quickly as they could in order to get the required five innings of play through before the rain fell. After Somerset had been retired in their half of the fifth, the rain again fell in torrents and Umpire Miller called the game.

In the four and a half innings of play there was little scoring. Both teams were playing to save the issuing of rain checks. Baker singled in the second and went around to third on an infield out. He scored on an error to middle. The same team play a double header this afternoon at the park, weather permitting, the first game being called at 2 o'clock.

The score:
 Connellsville, AB R. H. P. A. E.
 O'Hara, 1 . . . . . 1 0 0 0 0 0
 Ambsry, 2 . . . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0
 Butler . . . . . 3 0 0 0 0 0
 Baker, 0 . . . . . 1 1 1 0 0 0
 Titus, 1 . . . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0
 Birmingham, 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 1
 Greensburg . . . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0
 Connellsville . . . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0
 Scottsdale . . . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0
 Piedmont . . . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0
 Total . . . . . 14 1 1 1 5 4
 Somerset, AB R. H. P. A. E.
 Mather, m . . . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0
 White, s . . . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0
 Mather, c . . . . . 1 0 0 0 0 0
 Ward, r . . . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0
 Now, r . . . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0
 Stillwagon, S . . . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0
 Wood, c . . . . . 1 0 0 0 0 0
 Legge, 2 . . . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0
 Ringer, p . . . . . 1 0 0 0 0 0
 Total . . . . . 18 0 0 0 0 4
 *One out when game was called.
 Innings:
 Connellsville . . . . . 0 1 0 0 0 0
 Somerset . . . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0
 Stolen base, White. First base on balls off Ringer 1. Struck out by Laing, 0, by Ringer 5. Passed ball, Baker. Left on bases, Connellsville 1. Somerset. Time of game, 45 minutes. Umpire, Hayes Miller.

BASEBALL NOTES.

Doings of the Players in the West Penn and the P. O. M.

The field was better suited for water polo than baseball.

Eight straight games won Connellsville may yet establish a record for the West Penn in the number of consecutive victories won by a team.

Some Connellsville batters yesterday had the Fairmont end of the betting in the Butler series. The Soap Millers took a chance and put it all over Fairmont 11 to 1.

Hockey Ringer pitched nice ball while he was in the box. There are worse pitchers in the West Penn than Ringer. The crowd was rooting for the local boy to make a good showing.

Laing told the crowd what he was going to do to one of Ringer's shots. Then he struck out.

Bernard Stillwagon didn't have a chance at third.

Mathers looked natural in right field. He has been at his home in Charleroi since leaving the local team.

Edgar Mather is playing a star game for Winchester. He gets in a big hit or two in every game and his hitting has called for commendation in the Washington, D. C., papers. The Winchester team has beaten about everything in Maryland and Virginia so far this season.

Ambsry was robbed of a hit down the first base line. Hayes Miller, who was umpiring the game called it foul, which the crowd urged him to do. Miller's decisions on balls and strikes were poor.

McKeesport is the hardest town in the country to please in the matter of umpires. McKeever, a new man of Dick Guy's, is the latest to get his bumps at McKeesport.

The Champs are pie for Marty Hogan's team on the Uniontown grounds.

Walker, who pitched for Zanesville yesterday, is six feet five inches tall. He looks almost as tall as the skyscraper when he walks out to the mound.

Malarkey expects some new men today in the games this afternoon and tomorrow.

The field will be in the best of condition today.

A base runner got orders from McKinley to try out Baker's arm in the second inning. The California State Normal boy easily threw him out trying to steal second.

Zinn and Timins may be the pitching staff for the two games this afternoon. Somerset's twirlers will not be announced until they warm up.

The games at Butler and Connellsville were the only ones played in the West Penn yesterday, the others being postponed owing to rain.

Baker scored nine runs in the first inning against Fairmont yesterday and two in the second. Schmenski was wild and was succeeded by Andrews, a new man for Fairmont. Jones, Butler's hard high pitcher, at last won a game. Fairmont only made four hits off him.

Uniontown is still blaming it on the umpire. Yesterday's defeat by Zanesville was credited to Umpire Black for a decision he made on Pop Shriver at third.

Hackett at first for Somerset yesterday let a low throw get away from him on a hit to the infield by O'Hara. He recovered the ball, however, and retired O'Hara at second by a nice throw.

Wend handles himself well behind the bat. He is active and throws nicely.

Ringer struck out two Connellsville players in the first inning. He gave up one base on balls.

Faing didn't exert himself much to get credit for a no hit no run game. County Chairman John R. Byrne and Joe Kling stopped off long enough on their way from Uniontown to Evanson to get caught in the rain at the park. Three times this season the crowd has been caught and marooned in the grandstand for more than an hour. Yesterday's rain was the hardest of the three. Every time the lightning flashed, the fans would huddle down closer.

Pat Moran is out at Uniontown and may join Malarkey's Wanderers.

The management of the Greensburg baseball announces with pride that the team has been practically self-sustaining since it was taken over by the stockholders. On this account the fund raised by stock subscriptions has not been touched, and it is now certain that Greensburg will last as long as any team in the West Penn League.

Captain Powell is gradually strengthening the team, and has several more players in sight who will fill in weak spots. Considering the home situation, Greenburg fans think the local team has made a good showing, and hope for much better playing in the future.

West Penn Standing.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Fairmont	40	20	.660
Butler	34	27	.557
Beaver Falls	31	25	.534
Clarksville	30	30	.500
Birmingham	27	29	.482
Greensburg	28	32	.467
Connellsville	25	29	.472
Scottsdale	25	29	.472
Piedmont	30	30	.500
Total	14	15	.480

Today's Schedule.

Fairmont at Butler
Beaver Falls at Greensburg
Clarksville at Scottsdale

P. O. M. Standing.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Steubenville	17	10	.640
Uniontown	31	18	.624
Zanesville	35	21	.636
East Liverpool	29	27	.518
Washington	25	25	.500
McKeesport	30	32	.476
McKeesport	16	30	.300
Charleroi	19	34	.360
Total	18	18	.500

P. O. M. Games Today.

Zanesville at Uniontown.
Steubenville at Charleroi.
East Liverpool at Braddock.
McKeesport at Washington.

BASEBALL RESULTS.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
New York, 10; Cincinnati, 0.
Philadelphia, 6; Chicago, 3.
Other games—rain.

Standing of the Clubs.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Chicago	55	19	.744
New York	46	26	.622
Pittsburgh	42	28	.560
Philadelphia	40	41	.440
Boston	31	38	.440
Brooklyn	30	43	.411
Cincinnati	30	41	.406
St. Louis	17	60	.221
Games To-morrow.
Chicago at Philadelphia.
Cincinnati at New York.
Pittsburgh at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Boston.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Cleveland, 1; Boston, 0.
Chicago, 10; Washington, 2.
Philadelphia, 6; St. Louis, 5.

Other games—rain.*Standing of the Clubs.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Chicago	46	25	.648
Cleveland	45	27	.622
Boston	39	57	.454
St. Louis	33	56	.485
Washington	30	44	.405
Baltimore	27	45	.376
Washington	23	43	.338
Total	18	18	.500

CITY LEAGUE.

Types and B. & O. Clerks Scheduled to Play This Evening.

There was no game in the City League last evening owing to the condition of the grounds at the park. This evening the Types and the B. & O. Clerks are scheduled to play and a warm game is anticipated. The Clerks are leading the City League with a clean string of victories and they say this will increase it another game this evening.

The Types are going after the game, and at the worst expect to make a good showing.

Missionary Alliance Meeting, LANCASTER, Pa., July 12.—[Special]—The annual convention of the Christian and Missionary Alliance began today at Rocky Springs Park and will continue in session ten days. A large number of delegates are present from Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

Gidden Tourists Entertained, CHICAGO, Ill., July 12.—[Special]—For the entertainment of the Gidden tourists, who are taking a two days' rest in this city preparatory to starting on their return trip east, the Chicago Automobile Club has arranged for a series of notable auto races at the Harley tracks.

CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLY.
Program in Mississippi Will Extend Over Six Days.

JALTIMESBURG, Miss., July 12.—[Special]—A Chautauqua Assembly for which preparations have been making for some time under the direction of faculty members of the South Mississippi College, opened today under conditions that promise well for the success of the venture.

The program extends over 12 days and provides for numerous features of interest. In addition to several noted lecturers and entertainers the speakers will include a number of the candidates for State office.

NAVAL CHANGES.

Commander Charles J. Badger succeeds Admiral Sande in Charge of Annapolis Academy.

Advertiser's Press Telegram.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—A number of changes among high naval officers takes place today as result of the retirement of Rear Admiral Anna H. Sands by virtue of the age limit. During the past two years Rear Admiral Sands has been Superintendent of the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

He is succeeded in that office by Commander Charles J. Badger, who was formerly Commandant of Midshipmen at the Academy, and entered the navy in June, 1896. For some time past he has served as Assistant Chief of the Bureau of Navigation. Prior to his appointment to that post he was in command of the cruiser "Olcott" at the Pacific Station.

The successor of Commander Badger as Assistant Chief of the Navigation Bureau is Commander Cameron M. R. Winslow, who was recently relieved from his command of the cruiser "Charleston," Conn., under whom he made a cruise from New York around the coast of South Africa with Secretary Root as a passenger. Commander Winslow's wife is the daughter of Henry O. Havemeyer of New York. Several years ago Comdr. Winslow was on duty in the Bureau of Navigation and served as naval aid to President Roosevelt. He was advanced for extraordinary services during the war with Spain, and is now to be promoted to the grade of captain.

Advertiser's Press Telegram.

He will forgo the sum of $5,000 for any case of epileptic convulsions that he cannot cure.

Consultation in English and German and strictly confidential. Write if you cannot call.

Office hours: From 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. On Sundays, from 9 to 12 only.

DR. GREWER
Medical and Surgical Institute, A. C.
Hagan Block, No. 28 East Main Street, Uniontown, Pa.

Dr. E. Grewer, Consulting Physician and Surgeon.

Dr. E. Grewer, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and one of the leading specialists of this state, is now permanently located at the above

The News of Nearby Towns.

SOMERSET NEWS.

Happenings of a Day Among the Frosty Sons of Thunder.

SOMERSET, July 10.—James M. Koff, for bus, returned from Mt. Clemens, Mich., where he had been taking treatment for rheumatism.

Messengers Edward Welmer and Ben Landis are visiting friends in Johnstown.

A. G. Davis is the first property owner in Somerset to lay concrete in embanking the street on which his property fronts. The concrete curb presents a neat appearance and seems to be an improvement to stone curb.

J. H. Gifford of West Union street has as his guest Mr. Richards of Kirkwood, Va.

Preston Shaffer a delivery boy for a grocery firm in W. Va. was attacked by a large dog at 9 o'clock last night and there is little doubt that the lad would have been killed by the ferocious canine if the dog heretofore was of a gentle disposition. The young shaver entered the yard of his employer's home late at night and made a fierce attack upon him, seeking to seize him by the throat. The lad shielded his throat with his arms which the dog seized and facets severely.

At the borough pumping station the new 4,000 foot well which has been in process of drilling for some time is being fitted with a pump. The business section of the town is but sparsely supplied with water during the winter months. It is believed that when the pump is turned on an improved type abundance of water will be at the disposal of residents.

Mrs. Humble-Rickley is engaged in preparing the choir of the Methodist Episcopal and Christian church music which will be given in the combined choir in the Methodist Church on the evening of Friday July 19.

Mary, the 17 year old daughter of Mr. Casper recently sustained a fracture at 33 by being thrown from a pony.

Henry S. Nichols who has been visiting his son here for a week, will accept a responsible position with the Pittsburgh Bridge Company. Presently he will be engaged in mechanical engineering also, his going to Milwaukee where he holds a responsible position.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stover their daughter Mary, son-in-law, Mr. Fred W. and daughter Alice Martin have gone to Canada where they will spend some time in visiting points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis T. Krebs and son of Morgantown, W. Va. are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Krebs of Main street.

Mrs. Frances M. Freen and daughter Miss Ann are visiting Mrs. Freen's mother, Mrs. Anna F. Bier of Main street.

Prof. W. H. Cohen recently elected second assistant postmaster has tendered his resignation which will take effect August 1. The reason for Prof. Cohen's resigning the position is that he has accepted the position of principal of the Ligonier schools.

Miss Harriet Hildebrand in his return from Wharton Seminary, New Jersey, where she is pursuing classical course, owing to the compulsory inoculation of the first class, has been stricken with one of the epidemics of cutaneous disease, the spring term was prolonged until July.

Mrs. Gladie Lamberts of Northway has as her guest Miss Edith Adams of Jefferson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Shiles of Main street have as their guest Miss Anna B. Kurtz of Berlin.

ROCKWOOD.

Bright Paragraphs From the Big Somerset County Borough.

ROCKWOOD, July 12.—For James Verdin Long of Pittsburg United States Coal and Coke Co. is arrived in this section for his usual annual visit to the popular resort at Trent.

During the hot months of summer Mr. Long when in this country always selects the mountains of Somerset county as a place to rest and keep cool.

Miss Bessie McElroy of South Side is spending some time among friends and relatives at Cassian.

John C. Johnson of the county of Pittsburg is visiting his cousin William Blackman of this place.

The first born which proved to be a daughter recently came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Shaffer of Rockwood. Her parents Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer are both very happy.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Younkin were Mr. and Mrs. George P. Scott, of Younkin.

The Somers best ball team passed through here yesterday on their way to Meyersdale where a game was played yesterday afternoon. The Somers easily won the game, however, by defeating the franchise in the W. A. Penn League, which is composed of teams from Connellsville, Scotland, Butler, Clarksburg, Greenburg, Fairmont and Wheeling.

Mr. and Mrs. John and George Braden our two well known fishermen by this place spent a day this week at Gentryton and were rewarded by catching 55 of the speckled beauties.

Prof. F. G. Masters who was recently engaged to teach English in Connellsville High School is a son of Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Masters of this place. Last year Dr. Masters was assistant principal and his son followed him in the same position.

The most severe clash of action of the summer took place yesterday on Wednesday evening between 8 and 9 o'clock in the big store in the Braden brothers' in Millerton townships which was fought like lightning but it was not decided.

Yesterday was the day set by County Superintendent D. W. Seibert for returning the certificates of health which had taken the examination here. The participants were as follows meeting at the postoffice to have an audience.

CHIOPYLE.

Notes From the Little Mountain Resort Up the Yough.

CHIOPYLE, July 11.—Moses Burnworth and children are the guests of friends and relatives in Connellsville.

A nice smart crowd came on the excursion Sunday about 100 in all. The pierre go round at the Panzer Hotel was going in full blast yesterday. In the afternoon two boys fell from it but neither was injured.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Smith are calling on friends in town to-day.

Opal show experienced a strange event yesterday. While riding at a high rate of speed on his bicycle on Bridge Street as he was passing the end of the bridge close to Goffelt's restaurant his bicycle separated into about two different parts. One rear wheel went loose from the seat and started home having escaped injury.

Quite a number of guests were registered at the hotels here Sunday.

Ronald Thorpe was a business caller.

On Saturday evening a business call.

After the departure of Bert King was looking after business matters in town yesterday.

Dr. Morton of Chiopyle was here for a short time Thursday on business.

DUNBAR.

Events of the Day in the Busy Furniture Town.

DUNBAR, July 11.—The Federated Music Club held their annual picnic at Shady Grove Park yesterday with a large attendance. Notwithstanding the infestation of mosquitos of the weather, the band had a good time.

Miss Anna Bechtel is the guest of Chiopyle friends yesterday.

For a mile inland at the edge of the town a new well which has been drilled by a crew of workmen is being fitted with a pump. The business section of the town is but sparsely supplied with water during the winter months.

It is believed that when the pump is turned on an improved type abundance of water will be at the disposal of residents.

Mrs. Humble-Rickley is engaged in preparing the choir of the Methodist Episcopal and Christian church music which will be given in the combined choir in the Methodist Church on the evening of Friday July 19.

Mary, the 17 year old daughter of Mr. Casper recently sustained a fracture at 33 by being thrown from a pony.

Henry S. Nichols who has been visiting his son here for a week, will accept a responsible position with the Pittsburgh Bridge Company. Presently he will be engaged in mechanical engineering also, his going to Milwaukee where he holds a responsible position.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stover their daughter Mary, son-in-law, Mr. Fred W. and daughter Alice Martin have gone to Canada where they will spend some time in visiting points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis T. Krebs and son of Morgantown, W. Va. are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Krebs of Main street.

Mrs. Frances M. Freen and daughter Miss Ann are visiting Mrs. Freen's mother, Mrs. Anna F. Bier of Main street.

Prof. W. H. Cohen recently elected second assistant postmaster has tendered his resignation which will take effect August 1. The reason for Prof. Cohen's resigning the position is that he has accepted the position of principal of the Ligonier schools.

Miss Harriet Hildebrand in his return from Wharton Seminary, New Jersey, where she is pursuing classical course, owing to the compulsory inoculation of the first class, has been stricken with one of the epidemics of cutaneous disease, the spring term was prolonged until July.

Mrs. Gladie Lamberts of Northway has as her guest Miss Edith Adams of Jefferson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Shiles of Main street have as their guest Miss Anna B. Kurtz of Berlin.

PENNSVILLE.

Happenings and Doings of Bullskin's Busy Little Village.

PENNSVILLE, July 11.—Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Fager of Pittsburg spent Saturday evening at the home of Miss Margaret Ober.

Justice of the Peace S. S. Keim of South Connellsville was here yesterday. He is spending some time at Unifontown.

Attorneys James McElroy and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McGee, were here.

Miss James McElroy was in Connellsville for short time on Thursday evening on friends.

Robert McElroy, former editor of the Pittsburg Post-Gazette, was here yesterday.

Prof. H. E. Hart was shopping in Connellsville yesterday.

John C. Lewis was here supporting his son, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lewis, Jr., and daughter, Mrs. Anna Lewis, Jr., who are now in New York.

Miss Anna L. Grindall, who is now staying at the Connellsville Coke Company's house, is spending several days here in this place.

John C. Lewis, Jr., and his son, John C. Lewis, Jr., are here supporting his son, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lewis, Jr., and daughter, Mrs. Anna Lewis, Jr., who are now in New York.

Miss Anna L. Grindall, who is now staying at the Connellsville Coke Company's house, is spending several days here in this place.

John C. Lewis, Jr., and his son, John C. Lewis, Jr., are here supporting his son, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lewis, Jr., and daughter, Mrs. Anna Lewis, Jr., who are now in New York.

Miss Anna L. Grindall, who is now staying at the Connellsville Coke Company's house, is spending several days here in this place.

John C. Lewis, Jr., and his son, John C. Lewis, Jr., are here supporting his son, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lewis, Jr., and daughter, Mrs. Anna Lewis, Jr., who are now in New York.

Miss Anna L. Grindall, who is now staying at the Connellsville Coke Company's house, is spending several days here in this place.

John C. Lewis, Jr., and his son, John C. Lewis, Jr., are here supporting his son, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lewis, Jr., and daughter, Mrs. Anna Lewis, Jr., who are now in New York.

Miss Anna L. Grindall, who is now staying at the Connellsville Coke Company's house, is spending several days here in this place.

John C. Lewis, Jr., and his son, John C. Lewis, Jr., are here supporting his son, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lewis, Jr., and daughter, Mrs. Anna Lewis, Jr., who are now in New York.

MEYERSDALE.

Local and Personal Mention from the Big Somerset County Town.

MEYERSDALE, July 11.—Ed. H. Hobart the well known civil and business magnate left this morning on business for Pittsburgh where he spent the day in visiting friends.

Conrad Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

Tommy Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

MT. PLEASANT.

Personal Chat of the Staid Old Westmoreland Town.

MT. PLEASANT, July 11.—Miss Grace Lohr returned from home to get well at Ligonier.

Miss Frank Huot of Missouri, Mrs. George Andrew, wife of the deceased, and Mrs. Richards, Baltimore, spent the day in the country visiting friends.

Dr. Jess Mullin and B. M. Lohr returned today from the dental school in Boston.

Benjamin Wakefield of this place was ill yesterday.

Conrad Lampi who spent yesterday in Pittsburgh riding the West End trolley, left this morning on his return to Meyersdale.

The Daily Courier.

Entered as second-class matter at the post office, Connellsville.

THE COURIER COMPANY,
Publishers,
The Daily Courier,
The Sunday Courier,
The Weekly Courier.

H. P. SNYDER,
President and Managing Editor.
J. H. S. STIMMELL,
Secretary and Treasurer.

Office, The Courier Building, 127½ Main Street, Connellsville, Pa.

TELEPHONE RINGS.
News Department and Composing Room: Tel-State 748. Bell 12—Ring 3. Business Department, and Job Department: Tel-State 53. Bell 12—Ring 2.

SUBSCRIPTION.
DAILY, $2.00 per year; 10¢ per copy. DAILY AND SUNDAY, per week, 10¢ WEEKLY, $1.50 per year; 10¢ per issue. All subscriptions and remittances in the delivery of The Courier to homes by the carriers in Connellsville or our agents in other towns should be reported to this office at once.

ADVERTISING.
THE DAILY COURIER has double the circulation of any other daily newspaper in Fayette county or the Connellsville coke region and is the best-advertised and the general advertising is the only paper that presents each week sworn statements of circulation. THE SUNDAY COURIER fills in the seventh day for the daily edition. It speaks for itself. It is the best paper in the country, all the most popular news of the world and all the up-to-date features of Sunday journalism. The Daily and Sunday completely cover the advertising field with a circulation approaching 10,000.

THE WEEKLY COURIER is the organ of the Connellsville coke trade and one of the newsiest weeklies in Fayette county.

ADVERTISING RATES on application.

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 12, 1907.

PENNSYLVANIA AND THE PRESIDENCY.

Fayette County Republicans have endorsed Philander Chase Knox for President. This victory is even more notable than that of the Dutch when they took Holland. It may not have that appearance to the casual or the careless observer, but it is nevertheless true.

The Dutch, if we remember right, had Holland when they took it; but our own Phil didn't seem to have all of Fayette when his boom was first shot off. Some of our excellent Republican contemporaries were inclined to regard the whole matter as a joke and insisted upon so treating it.

The very thought of Pennsylvania having any candidate for the Presidency seemed to be highly humorous to them.

But it was funny only in that it was unusual. Political conditions had hitherto made it inexpedient for the Republican party to select a Presidential candidate from Pennsylvania. Those conditions are not likely to interfere in the coming campaign. As an indirect evidence of this fact it may be pointed out that the Democrats are likely to choose their candidate from the South.

Whatever the outcome may be, however, seriously and soberly perhaps sagaciously speaking, the united and earnest presentation of Senator Knox as Pennsylvania's choice for the Republican Presidential nomination was a wise political move, because:

1. He is an exceedingly amiable man in his personal qualities, and his ability. Pennsylvanians have no reason to be ashamed of him as a favorite son.

2. Whether or not he is nominated, the present situation makes a safe conclusion that this is one of Pennsylvania's rare psychological moments, and the wise man always bears in mind Shakespeare's sage advice, "Aye, aye, aye, in the affairs of men, which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune."

The Courier was an original advocate of the nomination of Senator Knox. We will not quarrel with our contemporaries as to which of us saw him first. "Great minds often run in the same channel." But we desire merely to say that we never promised our readers that he would be nominated and elected, not being gifted with prophecy; but we did say and still insist, that there is an opportunity for Pennsylvania to get the nomination next year, and that it is the duty of Pennsylvania Republicans to grasp this opportunity and hold it fast until it becomes a reality or dissolves into nothingness.

In this strenuous world of ours we gain nothing if we venture not and strive earnestly.

LOCAL NORMAL SCHOOLS.

The objection of the Vanderbilt School Board to the certificates of local "normal" schools, even when such certificates have the endorsement of the County Superintendent, is well taken.

The normal schools founded and supported by the State are the only normal schools recognized by the State, and they are the only schools of this character whose certificates should be recognized by school boards.

The average local normal is a mere tutoring place of indifferent ability, and it too often happens that very indifferent ability is passed through them and endorsed as first-class normal material.

The State has insisted upon better wages for teachers and the school boards should insist upon teachers who know.

SEWERAGE OF FIRST IMPORTANCE.

The work of mapping the borough sewerage system, past, present and future, should have been done a year or more ago, but there is consolation in knowing that the work though tardy will be complete.

The map is demanded by the State, which has recognized the transcendent importance of good sanitary conditions in every community. These conditions depend largely upon proper sewerage. Sewerage should always be the first improvement considered in town-building or town-extension. Good water is a good second. Paved and lighted streets are conveniences of first importance, but they are not necessary to health and life. They should, therefore, come after the improvements mentioned and not before as some towns seem to think.

Moreover, paved streets should not be laid until everything that goes beneath them is provided and put in place. A paved street should not be torn down to stay and it should not be torn up for light or trivial causes. The life of a paved street is wonderfully shortened by the picks of plumbers.

THE MERCIFUL MAN AND HIS BEAST.

"The merciful man is merciful unto his beast," and he should be especially considerate of the horse in this hot weather. The horse is a faithful animal. He is humanity's friend. He should be cared for as such, not only as a matter of gratitude but also as a matter of interest. A horse that is well cared for is capable of more proportionately than the animal that is ill-treated and underfed.

A wise and humane horseman who feeds and waters and properly cares for his horse seldom fails to have him in excellent training as well as excellent condition; and he is consequently able to get them best exertions with no more urging than his own voice. Few horses need the whip. The whip is usually the sign of a bad horseman rather than a bad horse.

Horses suffer from the heat as well as individuals and due allowance should be made for this fact during the intense heat of summer. The straw bonnet with which horses have been decorated in recent years may look like a joke, but it is just as grateful and just as much protection to a horse as the average straw hat is to the average man, the only difference being that all horses have hair on their heads and some men have not.

There are exceptions to every rule, of course; and some horses, like some men, need the whip and spur to keep them in action.

ROBBING.

In a recent case, Judge Steel of the Westmoreland Orphans' Court rebuked an administrator for the extravagance of an undertaker's bill and intimated that the estate was being plundered.

There is abundant reason for suspicion that the practice is common. The foreigner known to have money in the bank is scarcely cold in death before some speculative citizen takes letters of administration and proceeds to settle up his estate. The size of some of the bills indicate that the State Capitol methods are being duplicated on a smaller scale but in no less proportion.

It is the duty of the court to protect the estates of decedents from plundering administrators, and Judge Steel has set the bench a good example.

A contemporary says James Broadbent Hogg "is regarded as a competent surveyor." He is possibly so regarded because he is in a position of fact and haven't a chance, an entire and potential surveyor." We may add, from personal knowledge, that he stands in the forefront of his profession in Fayette county. He has few equals and no superiors in his business. Some excellent materials grow on Mud Island.

Dame Nature washed up the town again yesterday afternoon.

It was a little rain of our own last evening.

James Clapp's Work was the logical candidate for Judge of the Fayette County Orphans' Court and his nomination by the Republican County Committee logically followed. Logical initial nominations are preferable over strenuous contests such as we have just passed through.

The Woman in White is summing up her summer report after such a fascinating attraction.

This is such good growing weather that Chairman Byrne promises some republican plurality in Fayette county.

John R. Byrne is Chairman of the Republican County Committee with the aid and consent of every portion of it, and he will be Chairman of the whole Republican party and no particular portion of it. The committee is nearly every one to be congratulated on this fact. Every good Republican should now forget the scratches of the recent primary scrap and line up loyally together for the fall campaign.

The Stork still has the Grim Reaper on the run in this vital statistics district.

Runaway girls seem to be heading for Connellsville of late. Fortunately for them they seem to head into the hands of the law as soon as they land. Connellsville is not a good town for would-be festive and wholly foolish maidens.

Westmoreland has pushed its valuation up to $15,000,000, but there is some doubt as to whether it will stay there.

The esteemed Uniontown Herald is retorting. It is cultivating the kind words that burn in wrath. It has been very loudly singing. Let's all get out in the sunshine.

We are to have more water in our beer. Another brewery merger is on.

Another thousand acres of Thaw coal has been leased and some of the men are back to express their efforts to release Harry. The Thaws still have coal to burn but Harry has been burning a little more than his share.

Hurricanes are coming our way.

Classified Ads
One Cent a Word.*Wanted.

WANTED.—A COOK FOR COUNTRY HOME. Good wage & board. W. B. JONES, Smith House, Ephmont, Pa.

July 12th.

WANTED.—TWENTY-FIVE GUARDIANS, R. L. DOLLINGER AND DAVIS CONSTRUCTION CO., Broad Ford, Pa.

July 12th.

WANTED.—A YOUNG MAN AND WOMAN FOR BOARD. GOOD PAY. Three living room, 800 feet above and heat furnished. April 1, M. C. A.

July 12th.

WANTED.—TWO OR THREE YOUNG OR MIDDLE AGED MEN FOR HALL, TENANT, HONORABLE, PERMANENT EMPLOYMENT AT HOME. NO OPPORTUNITY AND $75 TO $100 A MONTH AND EXPENSES GUARANTEED. ONLY SMALL AMOUNT OF MONEY WHICH IS RETURNED. G. T. TIN, Mrs. G. T. TIN, 15th Street, Pittsburgh Hotel, Room 4. Call before 10 A. M. Saturday.

July 12th.

FOR RENT.—A NEW SEVEN ROOM HOUSE, MADE IN IMPROVEMENTS. REQUIRE 300 EAST STATE ST., 100 FEET FROM THE ROAD.

July 12th.

FOR RENT.—ONE FURNISHED ROOM FOR GENTLEMEN, 401 SOUTH Pittsburg Street.

July 12th.

FOR SALE.—SHOW CASE, 100 FEET, WILLIAM HILZER, 100 W. Main Street.

July 12th.

FOR SALE.—A VADA FOUNTAIN ROOM AND SUPPLIES, 205 North Water Street.

July 12th.

FOR SALE.—TEN SHARES PITTSBURGH SALES COMPANY & STOCK, NICHOLAS X. Z., care Courier.

July 12th.

FOR SALE.—TWO BEDROOM, ONE SIX ROOM, ONE EIGHT ROOM, ON PLATE FOR GIRLS, OTHER 8x14. INQUIRIES 201 UNIONVILLE AVENUE.

July 12th.

FOR SALE.—SMALL BLACK HOUSE AND LOT IN SOUTH CONNELLSVILLE, CLEAN AS AN INVESTMENT OR AS A HOME FOR WORKMAN, TAILOR, FARMER, ETC. FOR PARTICULARS, CALL ON A. L. H. FREMONT, THE COURIER OFFICE, CONNELLSVILLE, PA.

July 12th.

LOST.—MEMORANDUM BOOK CONTAINING ORDERS FOR OIL AND COKE. R. M. SHAWMAN, 1200, and 1201 East Franklin Street.

July 12th.

STRAYED.—OUR STUD, A PINTO PONY, NEARLY ONE YEAR OLD, IN TOWN, Monday Evening, July 8, 1907.

ONE DAY MARIE, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

ONE DAY BOB, three years old, weighs about 1,350 pounds.

$6.95 FOR A SPIT.

What an Expectoration Upon
Sidewalk May Cost one
In Scottsdale

BY ORDINANCE PASSED IN 1900.

Board of Health at That Time Passed a Resolution and a Fine of $5 Was Made the Penalty for the Unclean and Unhealthy Practice.

SCOTTDALIE July 12.—To spit on the sidewalks here may cost one the sum of $6.95, which will be considerably more expensive than in Greensburg where the people are beginning to learn to expectorate out into the street. There have been many complaints regarding the why the practice is carried on in Scottdale and particularly about public places where people congregate and then before the pavement. Butcher William Ferguson in view of the complaints on the unclean, unhealthy conditions of the sidewalks will soon inaugurate a campaign against the unsightly and filthy practice.

Signs are to be painted and posted along the streets requesting the pedestrians to refrain from spitting on the sidewalks. The borough provided against the practice as long as seven years ago but for some reason the war on the spitter then ceased after a time. The ordinance is No. 91, and reads as follows: "Ordinance of the Board of Health of Scottdale prohibiting spitting in public places. The Board of Health hereby adjudges that spitting in public places is a nuisance, source of filth and cause of sickness and hereby orders that spitting up on the floor platform or steps of any railroad or railway station, or public building, hall, church, theater or any sidewalk immediately connected with such public buildings, be and is hereby prohibited. The penalties for violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be a fine of $5. With the costs of a hearing at $1.00 it would be wise to desist from the practice. The word over the spitting on sidewalks and in any public place is recognized as causing grave danger to everyone passing. Disease of all kinds and most of all consumption arises from this."

The body of Mrs. Rosanna Newling ham, who died in her home in Toledo, arrived here today for burial. The deceased lived here for several years and is survived by a husband and eight children. Two of the sons live here; James E. and Harry, from the latter's residence the funeral will be arranged for.

Thursday was another day of rain for this locality and it certainly did turn open the spigot and let the sky leak down. One shower after another took place and there was some heavy thunder and lightning.

From Westmoreland's County Seat.

GREENSBURG July 11.—The Greensburg folks think that Morganza Reform School has developed into a school of brigadiers. Last evening at 8 o'clock a young man passing in the rear of Wilson's store, found a rear window open. He told the officers, who investigating found Joe Barnett and Frank Potts both aged 18 crouched behind some boxes.

Come out they were captured side Barnett when the police flash light glowed upon them. They surrendered without a struggle although a small arsenal was found in Barnett's pockets. He had a revolver, a black jack, a big knife, a chisel and all other tools used by the regulation members of the Brubaker Union. No body had been secured although several tidy boxes were pried open. The lads will be held for trial before juvenile court.

The first regular case of heat prostration in Greenup was reported last night in the death of James H. H. of Fairhurst. He was found dead in an outhouse and the case was immediately reported to the coroner. It was decided however, that no inquest will be necessary.

The Directors of the Westmoreland Hospital are considering plans for the enlargement of that institution. The recent State appropriation allowed $5,000 for a building fund. Of course this amount is not sufficient to pay for an additional wing and a strong local effort will be necessary. For this purpose the Board of Directors will appoint a committee in the near future. They are undecided whether to build an additional wing or to add another story to the hospital. In either case it will mean scores of fêtes, festivals and flocks to separate the charitable public from a sufficient amount of money to make up the deficit.

Greensburg friends were surprised yesterday to hear of the marriage of Thomas P. Cole of town of Mt. Pleasant to Miss Sophie of Cumberland Md. Miss Sophie is well known in Connellsville. She was formerly a nurse at Cumberland and has visited at the Cottico State Hospital.

The House Beautiful.
It is delightful after shopping to visit the Bijou Hotel and see the latest and most up to date moving pictures direct from the manufacturers to you. We consider no one our competitor. We employ no cheap agent what we give you is the best. This is all.

Classified Advertisements
in The Courier cost only a word

Our Presidents

MARTIN VAN BUREN.

The eighth president of the United States was a native of Kinderhook N.Y. He became president in 1837 at the age of fifty-six and died in office in 1841. Like his predecessor he was a Democrat. He was secretary of state under Jackson for a term of 19 months vice president during Jackson's second term. His administration was distinguished chiefly by the establishment of the independent treasury system of finance and the issuance of public money. Van Buren was a candidate for president at three succeeding elections but suffered defeat each time.

SUN SPOTTERS PICNIC

Kodaks of All Sizes and Shapes in Evidence Yesterday.

PHOTOGRAPHERS AT OHIOPYLE.

There Was a Large Gathering From All Over Western Pennsylvania and They Had a Good Time Despite the Bad Weather.

OHIOPYLE July 11.—Look what a great picnic was had in the upper part especially when the L. & M. Society composed of post-stand photographers of Fayette and Westmoreland counties held their annual picnic at Ohiopyle. It rained nearly all day and this interfered in a great degree with the dry pleasure but in spite of this the photographers and their friends had a most enjoyable time of it.

About 100 strong they assembled from trains No. 183 at relay station and immediately headed to the hills back where most of the day was spent from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. with the exception of a short time with the L. & M. Society. The weather was very bad but the picnic was a success. The best of the bad conditions was the rain which the people who did not mind it thought was a delight. It was a good time for all.

The sitting talk was the result of the day's work and the girls made the dolls in paper to make the letter pictures than they made on wheels. Some of them cut the most ungainly and clumsy shapes and they sprawled over the ground in a too dimpled posture. Some of them were so good that it was hard to imagine that it was a rainy day.

The women who most were the ones who found the recreation and the food had the best of the fun. The men and the boys were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

were in the best of spirits and I think

Our Guarantee.

"We positively guarantee that every article in this store is of this season's purchase and the quality of the highest standard. We will submit to comparison."

The Leader

130 MAIN STREET
CONNELLSVILLE, PA.

Our Confidence.

We are so confident in the prices we are making in this sale that we will refund your money on any purchase you make here if you find you can do better elsewhere.

OUR FIRST ANNUAL MID-SUMMER CLEARANCE SALE!

Entire Stock of New Summer Goods at Unheardof Prices. Prices That Will Make 16 Busy Days. Sale Begins FRIDAY, JULY 12.

When this store was established less than six months ago, we determined upon one point positively, and that is not to carry into another season a single article regardless of the sacrifice we must make. Therefore, we announce our FIRST ANNUAL MIDSUMMER CLEARANCE SALE. The whole stock, consisting of Millinery, Ladies' Suits, Jackets, Skirts, Shirt Waists, Etc., every article positively of this season's styles, much of it purchased less than two months ago, will be placed in this sale at prices that you will readily recognize as extremely low. There's no trash to dispose of in The Leader, and every article being strictly up to the minute in style and quality assures you that you are bound to get bargains that others cannot offer you.

WE MAKE THE FOLLOWING PRICES TO CLOSE OUT OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF SUITS.
$12.50 tailored suits to go at . . . . .	$6.98
$15.00 tailored suits to go at . . . . .	$7.50
$18.50 tailored suits to go at . . . . .	$8.75
$23.00 tailored suits to go at . . . . .	$12.50
Every suit must be sold at this clearance sale. Not 1 suit in reserve.
COATS AND COVERT JACKETS.
$5.00 correct jackets . . . . .	$2.98
$7.50 correct jackets . . . . .	$3.98
$8.50 correct jackets . . . . .	$4.98
The lot won't last long at these prices, so step lively.
Long black collared silk coats, just the thing to travel in. Light weight, cool, comfortable, graceful. Four different styles.
Three $20.00 long silk coats . . . . .	$9.98
Two $25.00 long silk coats . . . . .	$15.50
One $22.00 long silk coat . . . . .	$11.00

SALE OF SILK ETONS.
You can buy any silk Eton in our store at 33 1/3 per cent off.
50¢ dressing sacks at . . . . .	25¢
Ladies' good vests, others sell them for 10¢ and 12 1/2¢, clearance sale . . . . .	5¢
10¢ and 12 1/2¢ hose, clearance sale . . . . .	8¢
Children's jumpers, well worth 25¢ clearance sale . . . . .	25¢
Fine stand and dresser covers, well worth 35¢, at this clearance sale . . . . .	24¢
$1.00 bed, spreads, clearance sale . . . . .	59¢
Fine table linens, in red and white, 25¢ quality, clearance sale . . . . .	23¢
Turnover collars, worth 10¢ and 15¢, clearance sale . . . . .	5¢
We do not bait the hook by selling our sport cotton 2¢ below the regular price, nor do we sell gingham or muslin below cost. We want to make a reasonable profit on everything we sell that will not get out of style. We can, however, offer some economies to you at much lower figures than our small competitors, as we buy for cash in large quantities; hence these low prices.

Too many waists for this time of the year. These prices should reduce the stock quickly.

50¢ white lawn hats	65¢
All $1.00 hats	$1.00
All $1.50 hats	$1.95
All $2.00 hats	$2.50
All $4.00 hats	$4.98

Silk Jumpers jumped down in price 33 per cent.

50¢ white lawn shirt waists, now . . . . .	$1.10
$1.00 white lawn shirt waists, now . . . . .	$1.25
$1.50 white lawn shirt waists, now . . . . .	$1.75
$2.00 white lawn shirt waists, now . . . . .	$2.49

LACE CURTAINS

Our lace curtains to be closed out at 33 per cent. off.

MILLINERY.

We are still left with a big stock of millinery. At this quick clearance sale we will sell

A 1 $1.50 hats	75¢
All $2.00 hats	$1.00
All $4.00 hats	$1.95
All $6.00 hats	$2.50
All $10.00 hats	$4.98

Silk Jumpers jumped down in price 33 per cent.

50¢ silk jumpers, now . . . . .	$2.00
$1.00 silk jumpers, now . . . . .	$2.00
$1.50 silk jumpers, now . . . . .	$2.00

UNPARALLELED SKIRT VALUES.
That's a strong assertion if it's true. We make these prices to close out entire skirt stock. The skirts are of the best make, best style and best workmanship, and the main thing is you are sure of getting correct styles and fresh goods, this being our first season.
Any $1.50 skirt for . . . . .	$1.98
Any $3.00 skirt for . . . . .	$2.98
Any $6.00 skirt for . . . . .	$3.98
Any $10.00 skirt for . . . . .	$6.98
Volta silk's a specialty.
Silkoline, the the quality, clearance sale price . . . . .	9¢
P. & N. $1.00 corsets clearance sale price . . . . .	75¢
Pillow case, clearance sale price . . . . .	10¢
Embroidery, worth up to 25¢, clearance sale price . . . . .	10¢
Un brodas and colored pursons, worth from $1.50 to $2.00, clearance sale price . . . . .	95¢

Babies' 25¢ dresses, clearance sale price . . . . .	19¢
Children's $1.25 and $1.50 dresses, clearance sale price . . . . .	95¢
60¢ waist, clearance sale price . . . . .	45¢
'0¢ unbleached sheeting will go at . . . . .	7¢
MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.
Never before were you offered such bargains in white goods.
5¢ corset covers . . . . .	25¢
75¢ corset covers . . . . .	50¢
5¢ night gowns . . . . .	39¢
$1.00 night gowns . . . . .	75¢
5¢ skirts . . . . .	39¢
$1.00 skirts . . . . .	75¢
Children's drawers, from 3 to 6 . . . . .	10¢

The Leader
130 MAIN STREET
CONNELLSVILLE, PA.

Labor World Notes.

Union barbers of Cleveland, O., are watching all shops to see that they close on Sunday, according to law.

The National Association of Letter Carriers will hold its sixteenth annual convention in Canton, O., the week of September 2.

Chicago elevator men have submitted to a board of arbitration a position made to building managers for a wage increase of $10 a month.

Conditions in the Canadian cigar-making industry have been unsettled for some time, owing to differences between the employers and the unions.

Industrial insurance agents organized a union recently in Brooklyn, said to be the first of its kind in the United States.

At future meetings of the Rhode Island branch of the American Federation of Labor no delegate will be seated unless his clothing bears the union label.

Grand Master P. H. Morrissey, recently reelected by the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen to be the head of the organization for the next two years, has already served in that position twelve years.

That the Irish labor element is not in favor of Socialism as one of the objects of the labor movement was manifested by the vote taken at the labor conference recently held in Belfast, It was $35,000 against $9,000, for.

Following the strike of 500 Italian trackmen on the New York Central Railroad, a movement has been started to organize the 200,000 or more Italian railway employees all over the United States, and bring about a higher scale of wages.

Following the example set by the Chicago trade unions, the labor unions of Covington, Ky., have started a movement for a trades union bank. The bank will have a paidup capital of $40,000. All the stock has been subscribed by the labor unions.

A Government bill for granting State advances to farmers for agricultural improvements, similar to the system of agricultural banks in existence elsewhere, will be introduced next session in the Cape, South Africa, Legislature.

Miss Anastasia O'Meara of Cambridge, Mass., has the honor of being the first woman to hold office in the Retail Clerks' Association of that city. She was also the first woman member of the Association.

The latest and most up-to-date form of government sick insurance is being considered in Holland. The proposed insurance is obligatory and extends to all laborers employed regularly.

From two-thirds to three-fourths of the exports of Japan are produced by female labor. In tea, silk, weaving and numerous other industries the labor of women is invariably required, while

BETTER SAVE A LITTLE MONEY

If you should lose your job.
If you want to get married.
If you want to buy or build a home.
If you want to go into business.
If you have sickness or trouble in your family—

YOU'LL FIND MONEY ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL.

At this strong bank you can open a savings account with a dollar. We allow 4 1/2% annual interest, compounded semi-annually.

A Little Home Safe to assist you in saving furnished FREE.

The First National Bank

Resources Over $2,000,000.

MAIN STREET, CONNELLSVILLE.

Do You Spend $5 a week Foolishly?

A great many do and they wonder why debt constantly hangs over their heads. Deposit $5 a week with us.

Money you spend is gone forever. Money you deposit with us will draw interest at 4 per cent.

A man's duty to himself is to save some money out of his earnings.

Start a savings account with us today.

The Yough National Bank Connellsville, Pa.

COMMENCING JULY 13, 1907

The Title & Trust Company of Western Pennsylvania

Will Close Saturday's at 12 o'clock noon.
Open Saturday Evening's 7 to 9 o'clock.

This arrangement will continue during the warm weather.

The First National Bank
DAWSON, PA.

Capital - - $50,000.00
Surplus - - $16,000.00
Undivided Profits 10,000.00

OFFICERS.

M. M. COCHRAN, President.

JOHN H. WURTZ, Vice President and Cashier.

J. C. CORIOLIS, Second Vice President.

R. D. HARRIS, Asst. Cashier and Teller.

A. J. WURTZ, Bookkeeper.

B. J. MORNINGSTAR, Asst. Bookkeeper.

GEO. L. WHIPPLE, Stenographer.

DIRECTORS.

M. M. Cochran, N. A. Rist,

John H. Wurtz, W. Harry Brown,

Joseph Ogilvie, J. C. Coriolis,

A. C. Sherman.

Receives deposits, payable on demand without notice. Issues drafts and money orders on all parts in Europe and transacts a general banking business. Your account solicited.

Long Distance Talking is all very good in a way and we are always glad to give present or prospective patrons information over the 'phone.

We greatly prefer, however, to have you come in and have a heart-to-heart talk with us about our standing and service.

See us when thinking of a checking account.

Four per cent on Savings—strong—conservative—sound.

The Second National Bank of Connellsville

The Citizens' National Bank, Connellsville

in this strong bank.

Accounts may be started with any amount from $1.00 up. 4% interest paid.

New Haven National Bank, Main Street, NEW HAVEN, PA.

A Strong Progressive Bank, Equipped to Give You Efficient Service.

#4 INTEREST ON SAVINGS.

TRY OUR WANT COLUMN—ONE CENT A WORD

THE LION AND THE MOUSE.

By CHARLES KLEIN.

A Story of American Life Novelized From the Play by ARTHUR HORNBLOW.

COPYRIGHT, 1906, BY C. W. DILLINGHAM COMPANY.

"Upon my word"—he said. "You may be right and yet."

"Am I to help you or not?" demanded Shirley. "You said you wanted a woman's wit."

"Yes," said Ryder, "but still—"

"Then you had better see him," she said emphatically.

Ryder turned to the telephone.

"Hello, Jorkins, are you there? Show Judge Stott up here." He laid the receiver down and turned again to Shirley.

"That's one thing I don't like about you," he said. "I allow you to decide against me, and then I agree with you." She said nothing, and he went on looking at her admiringly. "Jeff is a fine fellow and, believe me, an excellent catch as the world goes."

Shirley raised her hand as if to restrain him to desist.

"Oh, don't—don't—please! My position is so false! You don't know how false it is!" she cried.

At that instant the library door was thrown open and the butler appeared, ushering in Stott. The lawyer looked anxious, and his disheveled appearance indicated that he had come direct from the train. Shirley scanned his face narrowly in the hope that she might read there what had happened. He walked right past her, giving no sign of recognition, and advanced directly toward Ryder, who had risen and remained standing at his desk.

"Perhaps I had better go," ventured Shirley, although tortured by anxiety to hear the news from Washington.

"No," said Ryder quickly, "Judge Stott will detain me but a very few moments."

Having delivered himself of this delicate hint, he looked toward his visitor as if inviting him to come to the point as rapidly as possible.

"I must apologize for intruding at this unseemly hour, sir," said Stott, "but time is precious. The Senate meets tomorrow to vote. If anything is to be done for Judge Rossmore it must be done tonight."

"I fail to see why you address yourself to me in this matter, sir," replied Ryder with asperity.

"As Judge Rossmore's friend and counsel," answered Stott, "I am impelled to ask your help at this critical moment."

"The matter is in the hands of the United States Senate, sir," replied Ryder coldly.

"They are against him!" cried Stott.

"Not one senator I've spoken to holds out any hope for him. If he is convicted it will mean his death. Inch by inch his life is leaving him. The only thing that can save him is the good news of the senate's refusal to find him guilty."

Stott was talking so excitedly and loudly that neither he nor Ryder heard the low moan that came from the corner of the room where Shirley was standing listening.

"I can do nothing," repeated Ryder coldly, and so turned his back and began to examine some papers lying on his desk as if to notify the caller that the interview was ended. But Stott was not so easily discouraged. He went on:

"As I understand it, they will vote on strictly party lines, and the party in power is against him. He's a marked man. You have the power to help him." Helpless of Ryder's gesture of impatience, he continued: "When I left his bedside tonight, sir, I promised to return to him with good news. I have told him that the Senate ridicules the charges against him. I must return to him with good news. He is very ill tonight. He halted for a moment and glanced in Shirley's direction, and, slightly raising his voice so she might hear, he added, "If he gets worse, we shall send for his daughter."

"Good night," replied Ryder, not looking up.

With a significant glance at Shirley, who motioned to him that she might succeed where he had failed, Stott left the room. Ryder turned to Shirley. Her fierceness of manner softened down as he addressed the girl:

"You see what they have done to my son—"

"Yes," replied Shirley, "it's the girl's fault. If Jefferson hadn't loved her you would have helped the judge. Ah, why did they ever meet? She has worked on his sympathy and he—he took these letters for her sake, not to injure you. Oh, you must make some allowance for him! One's sympathy gets aroused in spite of oneself."

"Don't," replied Ryder grimly; "sympathy is often weakness."

"Make her my wife!" cried Jefferson joyously. He stood at his father's side, holding his hands, and suddenly burst out in a fit of fits.

"Make her my wife?" he repeated incredulously.

"Well, what do you say?" demanded Ryher's son.

The young man advanced toward Shirley hands outstretched.

"Yes, yes, Miss Green, will you?" Seeing that Shirley made no sign, he said, "Not now, father. I will speak to her later."

"You sent for me, father?"

"Yes," said Ryher's son, holding up the letters. "Have you ever seen these letters before?"

Jefferson took the letters and examined them. Then he passed them back to his father and said frantically:

"Yes, I took them out of your desk and sent them to Mr. Stott in the hope they would help Judge Rossmore's case."

Ryder restrained himself from proceeding to actual violence only with the greatest difficulty. His face grew white as death. His lips were compressed, his hands twitched convulsively, his eyes flashed dangerously. He took another cigar to give the impression that he had himself well under control, but the violent trembling of his hands as he lit it betrayed the terrible strife he was under.

"So, no, tonight—at once!" insisted Ryher's son.

"The Woman in the Alcove," he went on. "Miss Green, my son is much affected by your dictates of appeal in his behalf. He says you can save him from himself. My son wishes you—he asks you to become his wife! Is it not so, father?"

"Yes, you, my wife! no, another again toward Shirley."

"The girl's rank back in alarm—no, no, no, Mr. Ryher, I cannot; I cannot!" she cried.

"Why not?" demanded Ryher's son again.

"Ah, don't don't decide hastily."

Shirley, her face set and drawn and keen mental distress showing in every line of it, faced the two men pale and determined. "The time has come to reveal the truth. This masquerade could wish to know how comes it that you had in your possession certain correspondence addressed to me?"

"That I cannot answer," replied Stott promptly.

"From whom did you receive these letters?" demanded Ryher.

Stott was dumb, while Shirley clutched at her chair as if she would fall.

The financier repeated the question.

"I must decline to answer," replied Stott finally.

Shirley left her place and came slowly forward. Addressing Ryher, she said:

"I wish to make a statement."

The financier gazed at her in astonishment. What could she know about it, he wondered, and he waited with

"Ah, I see," sneered Ryher senior.

"Judge Stott's story has annoyed your sympathy."

"Yes, I confess my sympathy is aroused. I do feel for this father whose life is slowly ebbing away—whose strength is being sapped hourly by the thought of the disgrace—the injustice that is being done him! I do feel for the wife of this suffering man!"

"Ah, it's a complete picture!" cried Ryher mockingly. "The dying father, the sorrowing mother and the daughter, what is she supposed to be doing?"

"She is fighting for her father's life," cried Shirley, "and you, Mr. Jefferson, should have pleaded—pleaded—not demanded. It's no use trying to combat your father's will."

"She is quite right, father. I should have honored you. I do so now. I ask you for God's sake to help us."

Ryder was grim and silent. He rose from his seat and paced the room, puffing savagely at his cigar. Then he turned and said:

"His removal is a political necessity. He goes back on the bench every party justice of the peace, every petty official will think he has a special mission to tear down the structure that hard work and capital have erected. No, this man has been, really conspicuous in his efforts to block the progress of unorganized interests."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

"He is a middlesome man," insisted Ryher, "and—"

"He is innocent of the charges brought against him," urged Jefferson.

"Mr. Ryher is not considering that point," said Shirley bitterly. "All he can see is that it is necessary to put this poor old man in the public memory to set him up as a warning to others of his class not to go in accordance with the principles of truth and justice."

"And so he must be sacrificed?" cried Shirley indignantly.

MISS SHERICK SURPRISED

Friends Arrange it for Her Last Evening

Mrs John McFerland of Uniontown was shopping in town yesterday. Mrs. M. Scott & daughter was taken yesterday on a little shopping trip.

Mrs. Clara McElroy of Listville was seen at the Hotel Olde-People. Have you tried Gold Coin Flour? According to Capt. C. C. Cleggburg was in town yesterday on his way back.

Charles Austin of Scottville is 11 years old to-day at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Austin on Listville street.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour. Mrs. S. McElroy and T. Quinn, widow of Captain Austin, are in town. Old friends are where they will find the greatest of friends for a week or ten days.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week. She has just returned from a trip to New York.

Mrs. Miss McFerland of Uniontown and one of her friends in town this morning were in town yesterday.

Mrs. John McFerland of Uniontown met her mother-in-law in town two weeks ago with her husband and son, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Clark of Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clark and daughter, Miss Irene of Marion, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clark on Main Street.

Lulu Duncan, now living at Westfield, Indiana, is in town. She arrived in town yesterday in a catch-as-catch-can boat.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hartman, John and daughter, Sarah, 11, were in town yesterday, while their wife is still in several weeks. Mr. Hartman will attend the 100th anniversary of the 11th Cavalry next Saturday and Sunday.

Captain and Mrs. Charles H. Hartman, 110 Main Street, are planning a big party to move to their new home on the night of July 12. He is the ranking member of the police force of the Uniontown & Ohio railroad on the Pittsburgh Division.

For satisfactory results Gold Coin

Flour. Frank Townsend Traveling Barber, agent for Mr. and Mrs. Kooser, calling on friends in Connellsville this morning.

J. W. Brown, Superintendent of Transportation of the Western and Atlantic, company, is in town today. He will stand at the bridge Spur, which will stand about noon. Mrs. Brown will visit relatives in McLeviston before going to the resort.

Cold cut and set ham molds, ham price, $1.12 each. The value of

Mr. Michael O'Farrell, 11 daughter, Miss Nedra, of Goshen, was the guest of Mr. S. J. Miller of the South Side yesterday.

Mr. G. R. Kuhn of Dawson was shopping in town yesterday. He is looking for his old traps and old pairs of him socks. He will pay $100.00 for each pair.

Mrs. Frank Murphy of Dawson was in town this morning on a little shopping trip.

Miss organist Jessie and little son Percy of Scotland are calling on friends in town this morning.

Don't forget the big picnic at the Washington Park Monday evening by the Rockwood Run. 1000 feet. It is a long and a full game to be won and the contests will be grand.

Miss A. J. Watt of Dawson was a guest this morning on her way to Uniontown.

Mr. L. R. Johnson of Knob Hill is the guest of Mrs. Wile Muller of Connellsville.

At all stages Gold Coin Flour. Mrs. J. S. Conly of Marion was a guest this morning at the Hotel Olde-People.

Dr. J. S. Conly, a man who was in town, is a dental social man.

One of the popular features of the evening was a beautiful repast served at the hotel. The out-of-towners present was William Anderson of Scottville.

A household necessity, Gold Coin

Flour. Dr. J. S. Conly and Dr. J. S. Hartman, 110 Main Street, are members of the First United Presbyterian Church on Sunday.

Following is the program to be conducted at the song service to be given at the First United Presbyterian Church Sunday evening July 14 at 7.

Organ prelude—L. Dietrich Baldwin anthem—In God We Trust—G. B. Herbert Jones choir.

Bible song—The Holy Adoration of You and Earth—W. K. Kippie congregation—Hymn—Pastor D. J. Husar's soprano solo—The Good Shepherd—Nancy Weller, Miss Gladys—Sudden Surprise—Reading—D. J. Huston's solo—B. P. D. H. D. Husar's solo—Choir—H. J. Miller's organ—H. J. Miller's solo—W. H. Conly—D. W. Dilley—Bible songs—The Church's Gloria—Prospect—W. J. Kuhne—Fugue on organ postlude—Closely related.

COOLNESS TIMELY.

Superintendent of Gas Coal Company gives warning of wreck

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., July 12.—[Special]—A timely warning given by Superintendent A. P. Cannon of the Penn Gas Coal Company who was standing on the platform of the last coach of a train this afternoon saved the lives of many persons in a terrible collision on the Youngstown Railroad near here.

A southbound passenger train had stopped for coal and water when a string of coal cars with two locomotives burst down on it. The rear coach was filled and all but two passengers got out through the doors and windows. Just as the cars came to a stop, the engine of the coal train was almost derailed through the last coach. The engine and the rear of the train were piled low by the wreckage, but escaped with few bruises.

Notice to Teachers.

The Dunbar School Board will meet Monday evening July 14 at the First Street Building for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing term. Proposals shall be $8,000.00.

HARRY WALES, President.

J. L. HEDINGER, Secretary.

School Board Meeting.

The Dunbar Township School Board will meet Monday evening July 14 at the First Street Building for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing term. Proposals shall be $8,000.00.

Classified Advertisements

in The Courier cost only 10 cents.

Local and Personal Mention.

MISS SHERICK SURPRISED

COMITS TWO MURDERS

Jealous Man Has Brainstorm and Kills With Butcher Knife

But on July 1, Peter Marsteller, a well known John K. Smith, a carpenter, was found dead in his room. The murderer, it is believed, is a man named George Hobson, a painter, is accused of his crime. The Smith woman found him dead with Hobson and his knife to the victim.

The killing was spent in mirth and games, several piano and violin performances being rendered by Miss Evelyn Levinson. At 10 o'clock a man arrived in town and was seized.

Thirty guests were present.

AN AT HOME.

Mrs. Wade Marietta Entertained at Grandview Farm from 2 to 5 o'clock Yesterday

A very delightful surprise party was tendered Miss Ulma Sherick at her home on West Apple Street last evening. The event was a most charming one and was arranged by Misses Anna and Margaret Cox and Miss Evelyn Levinson.

The evening was spent in mirth and games, several piano and violin performances being rendered by Miss Evelyn Levinson. At 10 o'clock a man arrived in town and was seized.

Thirty guests were present.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Uniontown was there yesterday for a week.

Now is the time to buy hammocks and set them up in the back porch. William Herle is 110 Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Due of Uniontown were in town yesterday for the annual meeting of the Uniontown Chamber of Commerce.

The above is a picture of Gold Coin Flour.

Mrs. S. I. Tracy of Union